

List of accommodation

This list provides an overview of some hostels and hotels in New York City, put in an order according to proximity to The New School and listed according to standards and prices. Prices indicated only give a general overview and are subject to change over the course of this year (in addition, most of them don't include tax). So, please confirm prices before booking. Also, please make your reservation as early as possible, September and October are, according to most hotel managers, the busiest months in New York City's hotel industry.
